

We are located on two acres of our own private grounds situated within 10 minutes drive of Belfast's city centre.

Farset International has stunning views of the city centre and is placed on the side of a wild fowl reserve offering an idyllic setting for all visitors and guests.

Where to find us

Farset International is situated on the main Springfield road in Belfast.

Getting here by Public Transport

The Hostel is situated on the main Springfield Road. 1¾ miles from Belfast City Centre. Farset is easily accessed by bus routes No 80 (Oldpark) or No 81 (Turf Lodge) both of which leave from Belfast's city centre Queens Street and stop at the main entrance.

For further information on public transport to and from the Hostel please click here to go to the Translink website which provides timetables for buses and trains in Northern Ireland.

By Northern Irelands Motorway Network

Via M1 motorway

Follow signs to Westlink roundabout turn left at Grosvenor road exit and drive 1.5 miles (approx.). Farset International situated on the left-hand side

Via M2 motorway

Follow signs to Westlink roundabout take Grosvenor road exit and proceed as above.

If transport is problem then don't worry at Farset International we can also look after all your transport needs. In conjunction with the Belfast Bus Company we have arranged special rates for groups for your convenience.

Farset International, 466 Springfield Road, Belfast BT12 7DW
Telephone 028 9089 9833 Fax 028 9089 9839

Email info@farsetinternational.co.uk Website www.farsetinternational.co.uk